Build a Better World!

Join us this summer as we "Build A Better World" at the Kilbourn Public Library. Get ready to construct your adventure in reading by attending special programs and activities featuring reading, community building, health, team work, projects, music, games, art, crafts, prizes and more. To be eligible for prizes, youth are encouraged to keep track of independent reading minutes or family read-aloud time. Adults can participate in the adult reading program, book discussions and trivia to be eligible for prizes. You can sign up at the library or online at www.dellslibrary.org.

June Special Events

June Book Club

The Readers of Broken Wheel Recommend by Katarina Bivald is June's Book Club Selection. This novel follows the story of Sara, who travels all the way to Broken Wheel, Iowa from Sweden to visit her pen pal, Amy. Upon arrival Sara is shocked to learn that Amy has passed away and she just missed the funeral. The town happily takes Sara in despite not sharing her love of books. Sara then devotes herself to spreading her love of reading to the rest of the town. However, her unconventional methods may force long-kept secrets into the open, potentially causing conflict. This book will be discussed on the following dates: Monday, June 26 at 6:30 p.m. at the library and Wednesday, June 28 at 1:30 p.m. at the library. Come and join us for a tantalizing discussion. If you cannot make it, please make use of our online blog at www.kplbookclub.blogspot.com.
