An annual celebration, this year's theme encourages teens to escape from the day to day grind of school, homework, family responsibilities, part time jobs and so on by picking up something to read. Come check out our great ideas for a teen "get away" including fantasy novels, sci-fi, tales of adventure and escape, and more! Tweens and Teens are invited to participate in our interactive teen read displays in the young adult area. Get caught reading and win a prize. Check it out!

NaNoWriMo

November, and the beginning of National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo) is fast approaching. This month, Michael Dodd is hosting two sessions to show potential participants how to prepare for this writing challenge and how to register. The sessions will be held on Wednesday, October 7 at 6:30 p.m. and Saturday, October 10 at 10:00 a.m. Join him to learn more, to ask questions and to hear about library resources that will be available during the month of November to help you on your way. National Novel Writing Month is a fun, seat-of-your-pants approach to creative writing. On November 1, participants begin working towards the goal of writing a 50,000 word novel by 11:59 p.m. on November 30. It's an attainable goal and we want to help all you future authors get there. Get started by joining Michael for one of the preparatory meetings this month!

October Book Club

In keeping with the haunted spirit of October the library book club is reading Daphne du Maurier's classic suspense novel, Rebecca. This novel is considered by many critics as the finest Gothic romance of the 20th century. First published in 1938 it is the story of the second bride of Maxim de Winter - a woman whose happiness is threatened by the sinister spirit of de Winter's first wife, the dead Rebecca. A perfect hauntingly suspenseful story for October! The book club meets the last Monday and Wednesday of each month. This month we will meet on Monday, October 26 at 6:30 p.m. and Wednesday, October 28 at 1:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome to join us for discussion and treats. If you can't join us in person, post your thoughts, comments and questions on our book club blog. We dare you to join us. (insert evil laugh here!)

Coming in November

November 2 @ 6:30 p.m. - Local author Betsy Grant will speak about how she developed and sold her passion: two books of military cartoons drawn by her late husband Vernon Grant.

November 3 @ 7:00 p.m. - Author Gordon Olson will talk about his book: The Notorious Isaac Earl and His Scouts: Union Soldiers, Prisoners, Spies. This program is sponsored by the Dells Country Historical Society.

November 1 - November 30 - National Novel Writing Month. Michael Dodd will be here at various times during the month to assist and encourage participants.

November 30 - Kilbourn Public Library will participate in the UW Go Big Read common book program with a community book discussion of Just Mercy by Bryan Stevenson.
