Local Author

Meet local author Diana (Spargo) Ryan on Wednesday, July 15 from 5 to 8 pm at the Kilbourn Public Library.

Diana is taking people behind the scenes of the Dells in her debut novel "The Carrier". Much of the story takes place on the boat tours, with the book giving some history on the river, the rock formations and Native American history. The story is told from the perspective of the two main characters who are working in the Dells for the summer. The novel cleverly weaves a tale of adventure, mystery and romance. This is the first book in a four book series.

Diana grew up in the Dells and began working as a tour guide for the boats at the age of 14. Diana's experiences of sharing the history of the Dells area to tourists led her to her current career as a teacher. The natural beauty of the river and this area provided inspiration for this novel. Come and meet Diana to learn more about this novel and her writing experience. Refreshments will be provided by Friends of the Kilbourn Public Library.

 ☆ The library will be closed Friday and Saturday, July 3 & 4 to celebrate Independence Day. ☆

Book Club Selection: Taken For Granted

The book club selection for July is Taken For Granted by Leslyn Amthor Spinelli. This novel is set in Madison, Wisconsin, amid the backdrop of the federal criminal justice system. When former prosecutor Caroline Spencer answers a middle-of-the-night call for help from her friend Kate Daniels—a prominent medical researcher—she has no idea the toll it will take. Her seven-year-old daughter, her marriage, her professional relationships, and her sometimes precarious emotional help are all jeopardized. Taken For Granted is page-turning psychological fiction. Join us at the library on Monday, July 27 at 6:30 p.m. or Wednesday, July 29 at 1:30 p.m. to discuss Leslyn Amthor Spinelli's debut novel. If you can't join us in person, post your comments on KPL Reads - our book club blog -at <http://kplbookclub.blogspot.com>. New members are always welcome!
