June Book Discussion & Author Talk

The Life and Times of the Last Kid Picked by David Benjamin. Through the telling of his own madcap childhood, David Benjamin pays homage to the exuberance of countless young boys growing up in the 1950s in Tomah, Wisconsin. Whether he's stalking frogs, playing four-kid baseball with his bothersome little brother and two favorite cousins, or sneaking into the theater to watch Sunday afternoon Westerns, Benjamin is the kind of little kid who would have fallen in eagerly with the redoubtable Tom Sawyer. David Benjamin will be here to discuss his memoir on Wednesday, June 28 at 1:30 pm. If you cannot attend this event, regular book discussion will be held on Monday, June 26 at 5:30 pm.
