National Library Week April 4-10, 2021

The theme for National Library Week, “Welcome to Your Library,” promotes the idea that libraries extend far beyond the four walls of a building – and that everyone is welcome to use their services. During the pandemic libraries have been going above and beyond to adapt to our changing world by expanding their resources and continuing to meet the needs of their users. Whether people visit in person or virtually, libraries offer opportunities for everyone to explore new worlds and become their best selves through access to technology, multimedia content, and educational programs. Here at the Kilbourn Public Library our doors are open to the public but we will continue to offer ways for you to “library” through our digital resources.

Local Author Event

Join us virtually through zoom on Thursday, April 8 starting at 5:30 pm for an author event with local

Wisconsin Dells author Terri Sorg. Terri has written a series of books for kids and parents about the importance of loving yourself. As a retired mental health professional, she uses her experience and provides interesting information and statistics about anxiety, and anxiety in families in her presentation. Since the world has changed due to the impact of COVID-19, many families of all ages are feeling anxious. Tune in to listen to Terri present one of her books and share advice on coping with anxiety in families. To register for this program, click here.

Earth Day Crafts

Stop by the library on Saturday, April 24 from 10:00 am to noon for Earth Day Crafts! We know Earth Day is actually April 22 but we will be celebrating on Saturday by making crafts out of recycled materials. There will be craft bags to-go, curbside pick up available or you can stay and make your crafts in our safe, socially distanced work areas.

New Storytime Theme with Ms. Jody

COLORS

Join us virtually on Facebook every Wednesday morning at 10:30 am for our online Story Hour. Can't make it in the morning? No problem! The video will stay posted on our Facebook page so you can go back and watch the program at your convenience. Ms. Jody has covered the alphabet and is now tackling colors for the month of April. Be sure to search Kilbourn Public Library and like us on Facebook so you can see when we post all of our important information.

Spirits of Earth with Robert Birmingham Ancient Native American Effigy Mounds in Wisconsin

On Thursday, April 22 at 6:30 pm Robert Birmingham, a retired UW–Waukesha professor and the author of several books on archaeological and historical topics will be with us virtually to host the Spirits of Earth presentation. The presentation will explore what is known about the effigy mounds and the world of the effigy mound builders with examples drawn from the Columbia County Region. After 500 B.C. native peoples began the custom of burying the dead under earthen mounds. Mound building exploded throughout southern Wisconsin and became much more elaborate taking form of sometimes vast landscapes of burial mounds made as effigies of animals, supernatural beings, and even human beings. Modern day Columbia and Dodge counties are at the geographical heart of this remarkable cultural development that is unique in the world and called the Effigy Mound Cultural Complex. April Book Discussion

In April we will be discussing the book Talking to Strangers by Malcolm Gladwell. This book tackles the question “Why do our interactions with strangers so often go wrong?” This book is a challenging and controversial excursion through history. Gladwell revisits deceptions of Bernie Madoff, the trial of Amanda Knox, the suicide of Sylvia Plath, the Jerry Sandusky pedophilia scandal at Penn State University and the death of Sara Bland, throwing our understanding of these stories into doubt. Because we don't know how to talk to strangers, we are inviting conflict and misunderstanding in ways that have a profound effect on our lives and our world. We will be discussing this book twice in the month of April: Monday, April 26 at 5:30 pm and Wednesday, April 28 at 1:30 pm. This discussion will take place virtually through zoom. To register for a discussion, click on the link above for the day you prefer.
