14th Annual Library Open House:
 Get Wild at Your Library
 Saturday, January 25 - Zoozort Program at 10:30 am
 Open House until 1:00 pm

Experience an amazing opportunity to get up close and personal with some of the world's most fascinating exotic animals. Our special guest, Noelle from Zoozort will give you a wildly unique experience to learn about animal behaviors and environments in a fun and exciting way. Noelle has been a USDA licensed animal educator since 1990 and loves sharing her passion for animals with children and adults. Don't miss the fun of this hands-on interactive program for all ages.

Following the program, the open house activities will give everyone attending a chance to explore the library through fun and interactive informational stations. It's the perfect time to come to the library and learn about what we offer - from books to DVDs, weekly programming, special events and more! There will be crafts, door prizes, free giveaways and more. Free lunch will be served by the Friends of the Kilbourn Library.

Don't miss it - It will be a wildly good time!

January Book Discussion

For January Book Discussion we will be reading books by New York Times and USA Today bestselling novelist Joshilyn Jackson. Jackson writes page-turners that revolve around women's issues, faith and justice issues. Jackson serves on the board of Reforming Arts, a nonprofit that runs education-in-prison and reentry programs. Through this organization, Joshilyn has taught creative writing, composition, and literature inside Georgia's maximum security facility for women. She lives in Decatur, Georgia with her husband Scott and their two children. Discussion of her books and writing will be held on Monday, January 27 at 6:30 pm and Wednesday, January 29 at 1:30 pm. Everyone is welcome!
