15th Annual Library Open House: Open House To Go Special Virtual Magic Show Saturday, January 23 at 10:00 am

January is here and it's Library Open House time. This year we are very excited to bring you a Special Virtual Magic Show. The show will feature Jake Strong Magic! Ever since Jake was old enough to speak, he has been obsessed with magic. After honoring his craft for over half his life, Jake has taken his show out on the road! He blends comedy with astounding original magic. His youthful energy is evident in every show he performs and he makes every show unique. You won't be disappointed! Tune in on the day of the performance at 10 am by simply going to our website or Facebook page and following the link to the zoom performance. Or send an email to staff@dellslibrary.org to receive the link via email.

Our 15th annual open house will also feature a week long Open House To Go. During the week of January 18-23, 2021 we will have a Grab & Go event for all ages. Stop at one of the library desks or the bookmobile to grab a special open house bag. The open house bags will also be available for curbside pickup. Open House To Go bags will feature:

- Crafts & Activities
- Programming Information
- Library Resources
- Free Giveaways
- Treats, Trivia and Tips

It's all the fun and excitement of an Open House...To Go!

Snowman Saturday! Family Fun-Day

The 5th Saturday of the month will be a Family Fun-Day with a Snowman theme! We will have Snowman crafts & build-a-Snowman kits that you can use to make a Snowman at the library or take with you to build one at home. It is going to be "snow" much fun you will not want to miss out.
Saturday, January 30 from 10am - Noon.

Jazz and the Civil Rights Movement with World-Renowned Flautist GALEN ABDUR-RAZZAQ FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 6:30-7:30pm

We are very excited to bring to you a virtual music and lecture event. Galen Abdur-Razzaq, an accomplished musician and spoken-word artist from Montclair, New Jersey, will present the lecture and performance “Jazz and the Civil Rights Movement.” This event will explore the history of jazz, its historical significance and its most influential contributors.

An educator, arranger, composer, and director, Abdur-Razzaq studied at the Berklee College of Music and earned a master’s degree in education from Rutgers University. For more than 30 years, he has performed and spoken to college and university students across the country. Please join us virtually for this unique and inspired performance. Visit our website or Facebook page for the link to register for this program. If you have any questions you can email staff@dellslibrary.org.

This special virtual event is brought to you by The Virtual Project, a collaboration among participating Columbia County Libraries to bring quality virtual programming to our library patrons.

Virtual StoryTime

Our Wednesday morning virtual story hours continue each week at 10:30 am with Ms. Jody. Join her on the Kilbourn Public Library’s Facebook page for rhymes, music and stories focused on letters.

January Book Discussion These Ghosts Are Family by Maisy Card

The January book selection is These Ghosts Are Family by Maisy Card. Longlisted for the 2020 Center for Fiction First Novel Prize this novel is a “rich, ambitious debut novel” (The New York Times Book Review) that reveals the ways in which a Jamaican family forms and fractures over generations.

The novel’s protagonist, Stanford Solomon has a secret. Stanford’s shocking, thirty-year-old secret is about to change the lives of everyone around him. These Ghosts Are Family revolves around the consequences of his past decisions and tells the story of his family from colonial Jamaica to present-day Harlem.

The author, a public librarian who was born in Jamaica and raised in Queens, brings to life her characters, along with their ancestors and descendants and those whose lives intersect with theirs. It is a novel overflowing with unadulterated humanity.

We will discuss this intriguing family saga via zoom Monday, January 25 @ 5:30 pm and Wednesday, January 27 @ 1:30 pm. Visit our website or Facebook page to receive the link to the zoom discussion. If you have any questions e-mail staff@dellslibrary.org.
