May Programming

Virtual Program - Seeking the Jarvis Lord The Search for a Great Lakes Shipwreck Friday, May 13 at 4 pm

Join us live online with shipwreck hunter and author Ross Richardson as he explores the depths of Northern Lake Michigan while looking for lost ships and missing aircraft. Dive down to one of Great Lake's newest shipwreck discoveries, the JARVIS LORD, a freighter which sank in Lake Michigan in 1885. This program also touches on invasive species and other shipwreck discoveries and mysterious disappearances throughout the Great Lakes Region. Ross has spent the last two decades exploring the bottom of the Great Lakes and discovering and documenting long lost shipwrecks. His website, michiganmysteries.com, is dedicated to the stories of the missing ships, missing aircraft and missing persons of the Michigan Region. Richardson is on the board of directors at the Maritime Heritage Alliance in Traverse City and spends his spare time researching the region's mysteries and building models of Great Lakes vessels.

Register online for this program by visiting our website www.dellslibrary.org.

Hoopla Book Club Selection:
The Temps by Andrew DeYoung

Every three months hoopla features a new book with unlimited check outs and no wait time. The Spring feature is about an apocalyptic disaster where the temp workers at a corporate company are forced to live in their office complex and try to survive. This novel is a surprising, profound tribute to the paranoia and absurdities of modern life and an epic exploration of survival and human connection in the digital age. Every few weeks we will post a discussion question or two from the book on our Facebook page. Everyone is welcome to contribute to the discussion. Copies of the Ebook and audiobook are available for download at hoopladigital.com.

May Book Discussion:

The Brilliant Life of Eudora Honeysett
by Annie Lyons

Eudora Honeysett is done with this noisy, moronic world—all of it. She has witnessed the indignities and suffering of old age and has lived a full life. At eighty-five, she isn't going to leave things to chance. Her end will be on her terms. With one call to a clinic in Switzerland, a plan is set in motion. However, a unique friendship develops between Eudora, her neighbor, and a 10 year old girl named Rose. Eudora realizes she must come to terms with what lies ahead, but now that her joy for life has been rekindled, how can she say goodbye? We will discuss this book twice in the month of May: Monday, May 23 at 5:30 pm and Wednesday, May 25 at 1:30 pm. Everyone is welcome!
