Go Big Read Book Discussion
 Parkland by Dave Cullen

We are partnering with UW-Madison and the Madison Public Library to bring you online book discussions about this year's Go Big Read book, Parkland, by Dave Cullen. These discussions will be happening Wednesday, October 21 at 7 pm, Thursday, October 29 at 1 pm, Tuesday, November 10 at 7 pm, and Wednesday, November 18 at 1 pm. We will have the link to sign up for the book discussions available on our website.

Taking on the different voices and perspectives of the March for Our Lives Movement's key participants, Parkland is an in-depth examination of a pivotal moment in American culture. Cullen guides us into the hearts of the Douglas students as they cope with the common concerns of students everywhere. As a celebration of the passion exhibited by these astonishing students, who channeled their anger into a movement, this book explores hope after tragedy and is an inspiring call to action.

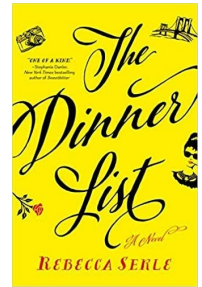

Go Big Read started 11 years ago and has grown to be one of the largest college common reading programs. It has united UW-Madison and local communities in reading and discussing timely topics, all with a goal of gaining a better understanding of each other and the issues.

October Book Discussion

The Dinner List by Rebecca Serle

Due to our recent closure, we were unable to hold our book discussion for September's book, The Dinner List. But don't worry, we will be discussing The Dinner List in October! Take this extra time to think about who you would put on your personal dinner list and why. Then join us at the end of the month for thought provoking discussion.

At one point or another, we've all been asked to name five people, living or dead, with whom we'd like to have dinner. Why do we choose the people we do? And what if that dinner was actually to happen? These are the questions Rebecca Serle contends with in her utterly captivating novel The Dinner List. This novel has delightful magical realism and life-changing romance. When Sabrina arrives at her 30th birthday dinner she finds at the table not just her best friend, but also three significant people from her past, and well, Audrey Hepburn. As the appetizers are served, wine poured, and dinner table conversation begins, it becomes clear that there's a reason these six people have been gathered together. Delicious, but never indulgent, sweet with just the right amount of bitter, The Dinner List is a romance for our times. We will discuss this novel twice this month, Monday, October 26 at 5:30 pm and Wednesday, October 28 at 1:30 pm. Due to COVID19 the discussion may take place virtually rather than in person. Watch our website and Facebook page for more information.

KPL StoryWalk

If you haven't been to the library to visit our StoryWalk there is still time. Come and wander through the library's patio areas, read the delightful book "What I Like About Me" and do a craft activity based on the book. We will be creating a new StoryWalk in a couple of weeks so be sure to check our website or Facebook page to find out when this will take place. StoryWalk is an innovative and delightful way to enjoy the fall weather along with a fun story. Anne Ferguson of Montpelier, VT created StoryWalk® and it has developed with the help of Rachel Senechal, Kellogg-Hubbard Library.

October Craft

Visit the library Saturday, October 24 between 10 am and noon to take part in our October Halloween Craft. It's the perfect time to create some fun crafts before Halloween gets here. Craft bags to take and make at home will also be available. All supplies are provided and all ages are welcome to attend.
